(a) 10 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends if the beneficial owner is a company (other than a partnership) which holds directly at least 25 per cent of the capital of the company paying the dividends;

(b) 15 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends in all other cases.

This paragraph shall not affect the taxation of the company in respect of the profits out of which the dividends are paid.

3. The term "dividends" as used in this Article means income from shares or other rights, not being debt-claims, participating in profits, income distributed by a permanent establishment as well as income which is subjected to the same taxation treatment as income from shares by the laws of the State of which the company making the distribution is a resident.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a resident of a Contracting State, carries on business in the other Contracting State of which the company paying the dividends is a resident through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other State independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14 shall apply.

5. Where a company which is a resident of a Contracting State derives profits or income from the other Contracting State, that other State may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company, except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other State or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment or a fixed base situated in that other State, nor subject the company's undistributed profits to a tax on the company's undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of income or profits arising in such other State.

Article 11

INTEREST

1. Interest arising in a Contracting State and paid to a resident of the other Contracting State may be taxed in that other State.
2. However, such interest may also be taxed in the Contracting State in which it arises and according to the laws of that State, but if the recipient is the beneficial owner of the interest the tax so charged shall not exceed 12 per cent of the gross amount of the interest.
3. The term "interest" as used in this Article means income from debt-claims of every kind and in particular, income from government securities and income from bonds or debentures, as well as income assimilated to income from money lent by the taxation laws of the State in which the income arises. Penalty charges for late payment shall not be regarded as interest for the purposes of this Article.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the interest, being a resident of a Contracting State, carries on business in the other Contracting State in which the interest arises through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other State independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the debt-claim in respect of which the interest is paid is effectively connected with: (a) such permanent establishment or fixed base, or with (b) business activities referred to in (c) of paragraph 1 of Article 7. In such cases the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14, as the case may be, shall apply.

5. Interest shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting State when the payer is a resident of that State. Where, however, the person paying the interest, whether he is a resident of a Contracting State or not, has in a Contracting State a permanent establishment or a fixed base in connection with which the indebtedness on which the interest is paid was incurred, and such interest is borne by such permanent establishment or fixed base, then such interest shall be deemed to arise in the State in which the permanent establishment or the fixed base is situated.

Article 12

ROYALTIES

1. Royalties arising in a Contracting State and paid to a resident of the other Contracting State may be taxed in that other State.

2. However, such royalties may also be taxed in the Contracting State in which they arise and according to the laws of that State, but if the recipient is the beneficial owner of the royalties the tax so charged shall not exceed 10 per cent of the gross amount of the royalty paid.

3. The term "royalties" as used in this Article means payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any copyright of literary, musical or any other artistic or scientific work, any computer software, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret formula or process or any other intangible property, or for the use of, or

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the royalties, being a resident of a Contracting State, carries on business in the other Contracting State in which the royalties arise, through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other State independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the right or property in respect of which the royalties are paid is effectively connected with: (a) such permanent establishment or fixed base, or with (b) business activities referred to in (c) of paragraph 1 of Article 7. In such cases the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14, as the case may be, shall apply.

5. Royalties shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting State when the payer is a resident of that Contracting State. Where, however, the person paying the royalties, whether he is a resident of a Contracting State or not, has in a Contracting State a permanent establishment or a fixed base in connection with which the liability to pay the royalties was incurred, and such royalties are borne by such permanent establishment or fixed base, then such royalties shall be deemed to arise in the State in which the permanent establishment or fixed base is situated.

CAPITAL GAINS

1. Gains derived by a resident of a Contracting State from the alienation of immovable property referred to in Article 6 and situated in the other Contracting State may be taxed in that other State.
2. Gains from the alienation of movable property forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting State has in the other Contracting State, including such gains from the alienation of such a permanent establishment (alone or with the whole enterprise), may be taxed in that other State.
3. Gains from the alienation of ships or aircraft operated in international traffic, or movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships or aircraft, shall be taxable only in the Contracting State in which the profit of the enterprise are taxable according to Article 8 of this Convention.
4. Gains derived by a resident of a Contracting State from the alienation of shares deriving more than 50 per cent of their value directly or indirectly from immovable property situated in the other Contracting State may be taxed in that other State.
5. When the provisions of paragraph 4 are not applicable, gains derived by a resident of a Contracting State from the alienation of shares representing the capital of a company that is a resident of the other Contracting State may be taxed in that other State, but the tax so charged shall not exceed:

6. Gains from the alienation of any property other than that referred to in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 shall be taxable only in the Contracting State of which the alienator is a resident.

Article 14

INCOME FROM INDEPENDENT ACTIVITIES

1. Income derived by a resident of a Contracting State in respect of professional services or other activities of an independent character shall be taxable only in that State except in the following circumstances, where such income may also be taxed in the other Contracting State:

a) the income is paid by a resident of that other State or is borne by a permanent establishment or a fixed base situated in that other State; or

b) the services or activities are performed in that other State and the resident:

i) stays in the other Contracting State for a period or periods amounting to or exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in the fiscal year concerned; or

ii) has a fixed base regularly available to him in the other Contracting State for the purpose of performing his activities; in that case, only so much of the income as is attributable to that fixed base may be taxed in that other Contracting State.

It does not include the technical assistance referred to in Article 12.

Article 15

INCOME FROM EMPLOYMENT

1. Subject to the provisions of Articles 16, 18 and 19, salaries, wages and other similar remuneration derived by a resident of a Contracting State in respect of an employment shall be taxable only in that State unless the employment is exercised in the other Contracting State. If the employment is so exercised, such remuneration as is derived there from may also be taxed in that other State.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1, remuneration derived by a resident of a Contracting State in respect of an employment exercised in the other Contracting State shall be taxable only in the first-mentioned State if:

- a) the recipient is present in the other State for a period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate 183 days within any twelve month period beginning or ending in a fiscal year; and
- b) the remuneration is paid by, or on behalf of, an employer who is not a resident of the other State; and
- c) the remuneration is not borne by a permanent establishment which the employer has in the other State.

METHODS FOR ELIMINATION OF DOUBLE TAXATION

Article 24

ELIMINATION OF DOUBLE TAXATION

1. In Argentina, in accordance with the limitations provided in its domestic laws, double taxation shall be avoided as follows:

Where a resident of Argentina derives income from sources in United Arab Emirates or owns capital situated in United Arab Emirates which, in accordance with the provisions of this Convention, may be taxed in United Arab Emirates, Argentina shall allow:

- a) as a deduction from the tax on foreign source income of that resident, an amount equal to the income tax paid in United Arab Emirates;
- b) as a deduction from the tax on capital of that resident situated in United Arab Emirates, an amount equal to the capital tax paid in United Arab Emirates.

Such deduction in either case shall not, however, exceed that part of the income tax or capital tax, as computed before the deduction is given, which is attributable, as the case may be, to the income or the capital which may be taxed in United Arab Emirates.

Where in accordance with any provision of this Convention income derived or capital owned by a resident of Argentina is exempt from tax therein, Argentina may nevertheless, in calculating the amount of tax on the remaining income or capital of such resident, take into account the exempted income or capital.

- d) such person is a tax-exempt organization, other than those described in subparagraph c), provided that more than half of the beneficiaries, members, or participants, if any, in such organization are entitled to the benefits of this Convention; or
- e) the income derived from the other Contracting State is derived in connection with, or is incidental to, the active conduct by such person of a trade or business in the first-mentioned State (other than the business of making or managing investments, unless these activities are carried on by a bank or insurance company); or
- f) the person deriving the income is a company in whose principal class of shares there is substantial and regular trading on a recognized securities exchange; or
- g) more than 50 per cent of the beneficial interest in such person (or in the case of a company, more than 50 per cent of the number of shares of each class of the company's shares) is owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are entitled to the benefits of the Convention under subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f).

2. A person which is not entitled to the benefits of the Convention pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 may, nevertheless, demonstrate to the competent authority of the State in which the income arises that such person should be granted the benefits of the Convention. For this purpose, one of the factors the competent authorities shall take into account is whether the establishment, acquisition, and maintenance of such person

3 .For purposes of subparagraph(f) of paragraph 1, the term "recognized securities exchange" means:

- a) in Argentina, Securities Exchange approved by the National Securities Commission (Comisión Nacional de Valores);
- b) in United Arab Emirates, the Dubai Financial Market and Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange or their successors; and
- c) any other stock exchange agreed upon by the competent authorities of the Contracting States.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

1. Nationals of a Contracting State shall not be subjected in the other Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of that other Contracting State in the same circumstances, in particular with respect to residence, are or may be subjected. This provision shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1, also apply to persons who are not residents of one or both of the Contracting States.

2. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting State has in the other Contracting State shall not be less favorably levied in that other Contracting State than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other State carrying on the same activities. The

The case must be presented within three years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Convention.

2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the provisions of this Convention. Any agreement reached shall be implemented within the time limits provided in the domestic law of each Contracting State.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Convention.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other directly, including through a joint commission consisting of themselves or their representatives, for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs. PROTOCOL

The Government of the Argentine Republic and the Government of the United Arab Emirates have agreed at the signing at Dubai, United Arab Emirates on the 3 of November 2016, of the Convention between the two States for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income and on capital upon the following provisions which shall form an integral part of the said Convention.

1. Ad Article 5:

With respect to paragraph 2, subparagraph f), it is understood that the term "exploration, exploitation or extraction of natural resources" includes fishing activities, even without a fixed place of business, during a period exceeding three months in any twelve month period commencing or ending in the fiscal year concerned.

2. Ad Article 7:

(a) With respect to paragraph 1, it is understood that subparagraphs b) and c) shall apply only if the permanent establishment has taken an active part in the realization of such activities or if the enterprise cannot demonstrate that those sales or activities carried on directly by the enterprise (and not through the permanent establishment) are motivated by sound business reasons and not with the primary purpose of obtaining the benefits of the Convention. Any dispute relating to the application of this paragraph will be dealt with through the mutual agreement procedure provided for in Article 27 of the Convention.

(b) With respect to paragraph 2, it is understood that no adjustment shall be made to the profits of the permanent establishment if the conditions under which the permanent establishment and the enterprise are dealing do not differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises.

3. Ad Article 10:

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 10, the taxation of dividends in the Contracting State in which they arise shall not exceed 5% of the gross amount of such dividends if the beneficial owner is the Government of the other Contracting State (as defined in section 7 of this Protocol).

(b) It is understood that a withholding tax applicable according to the domestic law of the Contracting States, where a company pays dividends or distributes profits that were not previously subject to tax in the hands of the company, is also covered by the last sentence of paragraph 2 as a tax on the profits of the company.

MRE y C

4. Ad Article 11:

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 11, interest arising in a Contracting State and paid to the Government of the other Contracting State (as defined in section 7 of this Protocol) shall be taxed only in that other Contracting State.

5. Ad Article 12:

(a) With respect to paragraph 2, the limitation on the taxation at source by either Contracting State shall apply provided that the contracts regarding transfer of technology are registered or authorized according to the requirements of their domestic law.

27 496

(b) The tax limitation established in paragraph 2 referred to royalties derived from the use or the right to use any copyright of literary, dramatic, musical or any other artistic work, shall apply solely if the beneficial owner is the author or his/her heirs.

6. Ad Article 13:

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 5 of Article 13, the taxation of gains derived by the Government of a Contracting State (as defined in section 7 of this Protocol) from the alienation of shares in publicly listed companies quoted in authorized local stock exchanges, shall not exceed 5% of the gain.

7. Ad Articles 10, 11 and 13:

For the purposes of sections 3 (a), 4 and 6 of this Protocol, the term "Government" includes: (i) the Central Government, the Local Governments, the political subdivisions and the local authorities; (ii) the Central Bank; and (iii) any other financial institution performing functions of a governmental nature and the capital of which is wholly owned by that Government.

The term "any other financial institution performing functions of a governmental nature and the capital of which is wholly owned by that Government" means, in the case of the United Arab Emirates: the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, the Abu Dhabi Investment Council, the Mubadala Development Company (Mubadala), the Dubai World, the Investment Corporation of Dubai, the Emirates Investment Authority, the International Petroleum Investment Company (IPIC), and the Aldahra Holding.

The Competent Authority of United Arab Emirates shall notify the Competent Authority of Argentina if a financial institution of those mentioned above no longer meets the criteria provided for in the second paragraph of this provision as well as if new institutions have to be added to the list because they are covered by the criteria.

8. Ad Articles 10 and 13:

If after the date of signature of this Convention, Argentina concludes a Double Taxation Convention which limits the taxation in the State of source of dividends or capital gains derived by the Government of a Contracting State, to a rate that is lower than that provided for in Sections 3 (a) and 6 of this Protocol, the lower rate (including any exemption) shall automatically apply for the purposes of this Convention from the date on which the other Convention enters into effect.
